

Certified Life Coach, Danelle Rush

Discover YOUR PURPOSE: 15 Questions to Gain Clarity on Your Life's Calling

Our lives are a response to the questions we ask. In church, a big question sometimes asked is, “What’s our purpose?” One day, I started asking myself a similar question, “What’s MY purpose?”

I pondered on these questions and wrote down what came to mind. The answers began to bring some clarity. With the clarity, I would plan a little and dream a lot.

It’s amazing how the right question can help you discover the right answers for your life, provide clarity and divine insight. Questions can allow you to see things you have never seen before.

These 15 questions are designed to encourage and empower you to follow your calling. I hope they lead you to new dreams, wonderful discoveries, and purpose in your life!

Discover YOUR PURPOSE: 15 Questions to Gain Clarity on Your Life's Calling

1. What do I enjoy doing?
2. What do I dislike or avoid doing?
3. What do I daydream about? What dreams for my life keep me up at night?
4. What is something that God has revealed to me that inspires me?
5. What do I see in the future?
6. What impact do I want to have on people's lives?
7. What impact do I want to have on my life?
8. Why does my purpose matter?
9. What pieces of wisdom from my experiences can help others?
10. When was the last time I felt fully alive?
11. Which part of my life have I given up on? Why?
12. If I knew I only had one year to live, what would I make sure I did?
13. What is something that is unsettled with myself?
14. What is it that I really want? Can I name it?
15. What am I proudest of when I look back on my life?

The right questions can change your life. I hope these questions help you discover the answers that will inspire change for the better. A Life Coach can help you on your journey with individualized tools and plans to help you live in your purpose.